Why Partner With Us?

When you partner with Asheville Equine Therapy you are investing directly in the lives of people right here in Western North Carolina!

Your sponsorship fuels transformative, nature based learning and equine assisted services for people facing disabilities, trauma and life transitions. Together we empower resilience and independence.

AET is the ONLY PATH Intl. Center Member in three surrounding counties, including Buncombe, Haywood and Madison Counties. As a PATH Intl. Center Member, we uphold rigorous safety standards, ensuring the effectiveness of our programs and well-being of both horse and human alike.

Who We Serve:

Asheville Equine Therapy strives to enhance the lives of all in the community including those with disabilities, special needs, PTSD and trauma through equine assisted services and nature based learning. We empower individuals with diverse needs to achieve physical, emotional, psychological and social growth through the healing power of horses.

Our Impact So Far:

- Nearly 600 participants served since 2019
- 90+ participants served annually
- 49% of participants receive financial assistance or scholarships
- 7 programs offered, delivered across 21 sessions each year
- Program operations supported weekly by dedicated volunteers
